Grade 1

Unit #1 Citizenship

Content Area: Social Studies

Course(s): Social Studies

Time Period: Ongoing

Length: 35 days

Status: Published

Enduring Understanding

Rules and laws allow students/people to have structure within their school and community.

Essential Questions

Why should people follow rules?

How do laws help/influence communities?

What does it mean to be safe?

What would our community or school look like with without rules?

NJ Student Learning Standards

SOC.6.3.4.D.1

Identify actions that are unfair or discriminatory, such as bullying, and propose solutions to address such actions.

SOC.6.1.4.A.1

Explain how rules and laws created by community, state, and national governments protect the rights of people, help resolve conflicts, and promote the common good.

SOC.6.3.4.A.1

Determine what makes a good rule or law and apply this understanding to rules and laws in your school or community (e.g., bike helmet, recycling).

Instructional Activities

I pledge Allegiance by Bill Martin, Jr. Students complete mini-booklet that explains the main concepts in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Create American flag out of torn strips of red, white, and blue construction paper

Role playing- Act out conflict resolution

I am a good citizen booklet

Voting Booth

Create a list of classroom rules

Read story How Full is Your Bucket. Generate a list of kind/helpful actions. Have students fill out a form each time they witness a kind gesture. Place buckets in classroom for students to fill.

Week of respect: Kindness quilt activity (Read The Kindness Quilt by Nancy Wallace. Students decorate a quilt square by writing about an act of kindness)

6 Pillars of Character

Read Chrysanthemum by Kevin Henkes to explore acceptance.

It's Okay to be Different activity (see resources)

Bus Safety- Rules and procedures: Teacher will read Riding the Bus with Mrs. Kramer (Our Neighborhood) by Alice K. Flanagan. Students will write their most important bus rule and create a paper bus.

Interdisciplinary Connections

Literature-based activities

ELA-LITERACY.RL.1.1

Ask and answer questions about key details in a text.

ELA-LITERACY.RL.1.2

Retell stories, including key details, and demonstrate understanding of their central message or lesson.

Describe characters, settings, and major events in a story, using key details.

Assessments :

Formative Assessment:

A-B-C Summaries: Each student in the class is assigned a different letter of the alphabet and they must select a word starting with that letter that is related to the topic being studied.

Debriefing: A form of reflection immediately following an activity.

Idea Spinner: The teacher creates a spinner marked into 4 quadrants and labeled "Predict, Explain, Summarize, Evaluate." After new material is presented, the teacher spins the spinner and if the spinner lands in the "Summarize" quadrant, the teacher might say, "List the key concepts just presented."

Inside-Outside Circle: Inside and outside circles of students face each other. Within each pair of facing students, students quiz each other with questions they have written. Outside circle moves to create new

Reader's Theater:

Exit Card: Exit cards are written student responses to questions posed at the end of a class or learning activity or at the end of a day.

Portfolio Check: Check the progress of a student's portfolio. A portfolio is a purposeful collection of significant work, carefully selected, dated and presented to tell the story of a student's achievement or growth in well-defined areas of performance, such as reading, writing, math, etc. A portfolio usually includes personal reflections where the student explains why each piece was chosen and what it shows about his/her growing skills and abilities.

Quiz: Quizzes assess students for factual information, concepts and discrete skill. There is usually a single best answer.

Journal Entry: Students record in a journal their understanding of the topic, concept or lesson taught. The teacher reviews the entry to see if the student has gained an understanding of the topic, lesson or concept that was taught.

Choral Response: In response to a cue, all students respond verbally at the same time. The response can be either to answer a question or to repeat something the teacher has said.

Misconception Check: Present students with common or predictable misconceptions about a designated concept, principle, or process. Ask them whether they agree or disagree and explain why. The misconception check can also be presented in the form of a multiple-choice or true-false quiz.

Student Conference: One on one conversation with students to check their level of understanding.

3-Minute Pause: The Three-Minute Pause provides a chance for students to stop, reflect on the concepts and ideas that have just been introduced, make connections to prior knowledge or experience, and seek clarification.

Observation: Walk around the classroom and observe students as they work to check for learning.

Self-Assessment: A process in which students collect information about their own learning, analyze what it reveals about their progress toward the intended learning goals and plan the next steps in their learning.

Index Card/Summaries/Questions: Periodically, distribute index cards and ask students to write on both sides, with these instructions: (Side 1) Based on our study of (unit topic), list a big idea that you understand and word it as a summary statement. (Side 2) Identify something about (unit topic) that you do not yet fully understand and word it as a statement or question.

Hand Signals: Ask students to display a designated hand signal to indicate their understanding of a specific concept, principal, or process: - I understand _____ and can explain it (e.g., thumbs up). - I do not yet understand _____ (e.g., thumbs down). - I'm not completely sure about _____ (e.g., wave hand).

One Minute Essay: A one-minute essay question (or one-minute question) is a focused question with a specific goal that can, in fact, be answered within a minute or two.

Analogy Prompt: Present students with an analogy prompt: (A designated concept, principle, or process) is like _____ because _____.

Web or Concept Map: Any of several forms of graphical organizers which allow learners to perceive relationships between concepts through diagramming key words representing those concepts.

Explain how folklore and the actions of famous historical and fictional characters from New Jersey and other regions of the United States contributed to the American national heritage.

SOC.6.1.4.B.7

Explain why some locations in New Jersey and the United States are more suited for settlement than others.

Instructional Activities

Discuss reasons why students might move to a new town and why the colonists left England to move to America.

Compare and contrast colonial times/thanksgiving to present day. Read story Oh What a Thanksgiving and fill in venn diagram.

Read nonfiction books on native americans. Watch wampanoag indian powerpoint.

Read nonfiction books on pilgrims, Mayflower voyage, Native Americans. Discuss and retell key details.

Write facts based upon their learning on Mayflower booklet or journal.

Develop knowledge of the voyage of the Mayflower— Students complete a writing activity identifying what they would bring with them to the New World and why.

Watch video Thank you Sarah: Identify how Thanksgiving became a holiday.

Discuss Talking Stick legend.

Identify Native American symbols and ideas that have influenced the regions of NJ and use them to decorate a teepee and/or write story.

Students write a journal entry pretending to be a child in colonial times. What would they be doing? What would their life like?

After viewing The Mayflower Voyagers, discuss how people felt about coming to the New World. Make connections with students if they have moved. Complete video reflection (written) to identify two things they have learned and one thing they are wondering.

Status: Published

Cultures include traditions, popular beliefs, commonly held values, ideas, and assumptions that are generally accepted by a particular group of people.

Why are some traditions recognized throughout the world?

How do people celebrate their cultures?

How do different countries celebrate holidays?

NJ Student Learning Standards

SOC.6.1.4.D.CS6

American culture, based on specific traditions and values, has been influenced by the behaviors of different cultural groups living in the United States.

SOC.6.1.4.D.13

Describe how culture is expressed through and influenced by the behavior of people.

SOC.6.1.4.D.CS7

Cultures struggle to maintain traditions in a changing society.

SOC.6.1.4.D.CS10

The cultures with which an individual or group identifies change and evolve in response to interactions with other groups and/or in response to needs or concerns.

SOC.6.1.4.D.18

Explain how an individual's beliefs, values, and traditions may reflect more than one culture.

SOC.6.1.4.D.CS1

Immigrants come to New Jersey and the United States for various reasons and have a major impact on the state and the nation.

SOC.6.1.4.D.20

Describe why it is important to understand the perspectives of other cultures in an interconnected world.

SOC.6.1.4.D.15

Explain how various cultural groups have dealt with the conflict between maintaining traditional beliefs and practices and adopting new beliefs and practices.

SOC.6.3.4.CS1

Recognize that people have different perspectives based on their beliefs, values, traditions, culture, and experiences.

SOC.6.1.4.A.14

Describe how the world is divided into many nations that have their own governments, languages, customs, and laws.

Instructional Activities

Discuss holiday traditions in other parts of the world.-Look at tradition through special clothes worn, activities, foods eaten, and decorations- How did each of these come to be part of the tradition or celebration? Read aloud for each holiday accompanied by a learning activity. (Examples: Kwanzaa, Chinese New Year, Cinco de Mayo, Hanukkah)

Students write about a favorite holiday tradition. Compose an opinion/persuasive writing piece. State opinion and support with at least one good reason.

Read, discuss and have students participate in a variety of activities about American Holidays such as Constitution Day, President's Day, Veteran's Day, Columbus Day, Flag Day, Independence Day, and Labor Day.

Parent volunteers share aspects of their cultures with students – Compare and contrast cultures of classmates. Use food, dance and traditions to motivate students. Begin to describe the different customs, food and clothing of people from different cultures. Hello Amigos – Tricia Brown Shades of Black: A Celebration of Our Children – Sandra Pinkney Apple Pie 4th of July – Janet S. Wong

Take an imaginary plane ride around the world to various countries discussing identifying their Christmas traditions. Make a suitcase that includes the flags, maps, and small description of countries visited. Mark a classroom map throughout the unit that shows the various places visited. Students can refer back to the visual. Identify the traditions that have influenced American culture.

Read story about Chinese New Year: Make dragon, complete Chinese New Year booklets (enchanted learning), play Chinese New Year Games. Show outline of China and location. Discuss animal celebrated this year. Write facts about Chinese New Year. Explain how these traditions have changed in response to different cultural groups.

View an interactive Prezi that demonstrates celebrations around the world. Explain how these beliefs, values, traditions, culture, and experiences have influenced the perspectives of people in that country.

Interdisciplinary Connections

ELA:

For this project, have each student pick a holiday family tradition to tell about. Research a holiday tradition with their family and explain it in four easy steps. Use the written directions that they did with their family and create a storyboard of their four steps. They illustrated each step with pencil, crayons, and markers.

Writing 1.6 With guidance and support from adults, use a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers.

Writing 1.7 Participate in shared research and writing projects (example: explore a number of "how-to" books on a given topic and use them to write a sequence of instructions)

Writing 1.8 With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.

Speaking & Listening 1.1 Participate in collaborative conversations with diverse partners about grade 1 topics and texts with peers and adults in small and larger groups.

SOC.6.1.4.D.6

SOC.6.1.4.D.17
SOC.6.1.4.D.16
SOC.6.1.4.D.12

Identify stereotyping, bias, prejudice, and discrimination in their lives and communities.
Describe how the actions of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and other civil rights leaders served as catalysts for social change and inspired social activism in subsequent generations.
Describe the civic leadership qualities and historical contributions of George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, and Benjamin Franklin toward the development of the United States government.
Explain the role of historical symbols, monuments, and holidays and how they affect the American identity.
Describe how stereotyping and prejudice can lead to conflict, using examples from the past and present.
Explain how folklore and the actions of famous historical and fictional characters from New Jersey and other regions of the United States contributed to the American national heritage.

Instructional Activities

Use vocabulary of symbols with images to build vocabulary, introduce symbols and important people. In small groups allow children to sort cards or print out images as well as labels to discuss grouping. Students can match labels to various people and symbols as well as sort by symbol, landmark, important person, or holiday. Find meaning in the Pledge of Allegiance. Recite and evaluate the language. Use a cut and paste to order the pledge. Discuss each line allowing students to share what they think each line means. Compare to other countries pledges. ex. Australia or scout pledge. Define as a promise. Students move from understanding the pledge as a morning routine to an actual promise to their country.

George Washington's teeth, fact or fib. Read and discuss various presidents. Use statements to play Fact or Fib game. Ex. George Washington was the 7th president (FIB) thumbs down. True statements get a thumbs up. Encourage students to write one of their own fact or fib statements.

How Tall Is Abe? Mount Rushmore measurement comparison, relate facts about each person and why they have their faces carved into rock. What made them important enough to be a symbol on a mountain in South Dakota?

Read American Folklore: Paul Bunyan and Babe the Blue Ox and differentiate between fiction and informational reading. What is the importance of folklore in our history? Read the various tall tales that explain features in nature. Discuss fact and fiction, evaluate each tall tale read and give justification for reasoning of fact or fiction.

Read We The Kids The Preamble to the Constitution. Discuss how the class rules go along with the classroom constitution. Discuss what it means to sign your name to something 2 and what it meant for the founders to sign their names to the U.S. Constitution. Have students agree to sign the classroom constitution and then hang up in the classroom for the entire year

Use Pebblego.com or other kid friendly search engines to research and share information on a choice symbol. introduce topic, share a set number of facts and articulate why this symbol is important to helped shape our country. Discuss and relate Martin Luther King, Jr.'s actions and perspective to the shaping of future decisions. Read and discuss Martin's Big Words By Doreen Rappaport. Students complete writing activity by choosing their own big words. Evaluate why certain individuals have made contributions to our country that made them important enough to be featured on coins or bills.

Johnny Appleseed- Read and discuss story. Students complete a related art project.

Read biographies about famous Americans. Students write an autobiography.

ELA - folklore

NJSLS ELA-LITERACY.RL.1.5 Explain major differences between books that tell stories and books that give information, drawing on a wide reading of a range of text types. Research facts on George Washington and Abe Lincoln- Students use facts to write a short nonfiction text.

NJSLS ELA-LITERACY.W.1.7 Participate in shared research and writing projects (e.g., explore a number of "how-to" books on a given topic and use them to write a sequence of instructions).

NJSLS ELA-LITERACY.W.1.2 Write informative/explanatory texts in which they name a topic, supply some facts about the topic, and provide some sense of closure. Math Connection -Abe- measuring length, ordering three objects in height order; famous figures on money

NJSLS MATH.CONTENT.1.MD.A.1 Order three objects by length; compare the lengths of two objects indirectly by using a third object.

NJSLS MATH.CONTENT.1.MD.A.2 Express the length of an object as a whole number of length units, by laying multiple copies of a shorter object (the length unit) end to end; understand that the length measurement of an object is the number of same-size length units that span it with no gaps or overlaps.

Assessments :

Formative Assessment:

A-B-C Summaries: Each student in the class is assigned a different letter of the alphabet and they must select a word starting with that letter that is related to the topic being studied.

Debriefing: A form of reflection immediately following an activity.

Idea Spinner: The teacher creates a spinner marked into 4 quadrants and labeled “Predict, Explain, Summarize, Evaluate.” After new material is presented, the teacher spins the spinner and if the spinner lands in the “Summarize” quadrant, the teacher might say, “List the key concepts just presented.”

Inside-Outside Circle: Inside and outside circles of students face each other. Within each pair of facing students, students quiz each other with questions they have written. Outside circle moves to create new

Reader’s Theater:

Exit Card: Exit cards are written student responses to questions posed at the end of a class or learning activity or at the end of a day.

Portfolio Check: Check the progress of a student’s portfolio. A portfolio is a purposeful collection of significant work, carefully selected, dated and presented to tell the story of a student’s achievement or growth in well-defined areas of performance, such as reading, writing, math, etc. A portfolio usually includes personal reflections where the student explains why each piece was chosen and what it shows about his/her growing skills and abilities.

Quiz: Quizzes assess students for factual information, concepts and discrete skill. There is usually a single best answer.

Journal Entry: Students record in a journal their understanding of the topic, concept or lesson taught. The teacher reviews the entry to see if the student has gained an understanding of the topic, lesson or concept that was taught.

Choral Response: In response to a cue, all students respond verbally at the same time. The response can be either to answer a question or to repeat something the teacher has said.

Misconception Check: Present students with common or predictable misconceptions about a designated concept, principle, or process. Ask them whether they agree or disagree and explain why. The misconception check can also be presented in the form of a multiple-choice or true-false quiz.

Student Conference: One on one conversation with students to check their level of understanding.

3-Minute Pause: The Three-Minute Pause provides a chance for students to stop, reflect on the concepts and ideas that have just been introduced, make connections to prior knowledge or experience, and seek clarification.

Observation: Walk around the classroom and observe students as they work to check for learning.

Self-Assessment: A process in which students collect information about their own learning, analyze what it reveals about their progress toward the intended learning goals and plan the next steps in their learning.

Index Card/Summaries/Questions: Periodically, distribute index cards and ask students to write on both sides, with these instructions: (Side 1) Based on our study of (unit topic), list a big idea that you understand and word it as a summary statement. (Side 2) Identify something about (unit topic) that you do not yet fully understand and word it as a statement or question.

Hand Signals: Ask students to display a designated hand signal to indicate their understanding of a specific concept, principal, or process: - I understand _____ and can explain it (e.g., thumbs up). - I do not yet understand _____ (e.g., thumbs down). - I’m not completely sure about _____ (e.g., wave hand).

One Minute Essay: A one-minute essay question (or one-minute question) is a focused question with a specific goal that can, in fact, be answered within a minute or two.

Analogy Prompt: Present students with an analogy prompt: (A designated concept, principle, or process) is like _____ because _____.

Web or Concept Map: Any of several forms of graphical organizers which allow learners to perceive relationships between concepts through diagramming key words representing those concepts.

Enduring Understanding

Each family is unique in its makeup and will evolve over time in response to their needs, wants, and availability of resources.

Essential Questions

What is a family and why are they important?
How do families change over time?
How are families alike and different?
How do wants, needs, and the availability of resources affect families' decisions?

NJ Student Learning Standards

SOC.6.3.4.CS5
SOC.6.3.4.CS3
SOC.6.3.4.CS1

Develop strategies to reach consensus and resolve conflict.
Are aware of their relationships to people, places, and resources in the local community and beyond.
Recognize that people have different perspectives based on their beliefs, values, traditions, culture, and experiences.

Instructional Activities

Students work with a partner to create a Venn Diagram comparing their families.

Students create a class bar graph to compare the number of people in their families.

Students create a class web chart of family jobs to show how all members are dependent on one another.

Students create a family timeline.

Compare and contrast family dynamics before and after the student was born.

Teacher reads story aloud. Students make their own family tree by tracing and cutting out a tree trunk, tracing hands for each family member, labeling them, and gluing to their tree. Families Are Different by Nina Pelligrini

Make a graph of number of siblings. Advance/independent students can graph brothers and sisters in the class. Read Julius, Baby of the World by Kevin Henkes. Discuss the building of the family bond. Relate to real life situations with siblings. How was the conflict resolved?

Interdisciplinary Connections

People live in many different locations and where people live affects the way they live.

Essential Questions

How are people affected by the geography and weather?
Why do we need maps?
How do people use and share resources?

NJ Student Learning Standards

SOC.6.1.4.B.1	Compare and contrast information that can be found on different types of maps and determine how the information may be useful.
SOC.6.1.4.B.4	Describe how landforms, climate and weather, and availability of resources have impacted where and how people live and work in different regions of New Jersey and the United States.
SOC.6.1.4.B.CS7	Urban areas, worldwide, share common physical characteristics, but may also have cultural differences.
SOC.6.1.4.D.11	Determine how local and state communities have changed over time, and explain the reasons for changes.
SOC.6.1.4.A.14	Describe how the world is divided into many nations that have their own governments, languages, customs, and laws.
