Unit #1, World Language, Introductory Conversation

Time Period: September

Length: 40 days

Enduring Understanding

Making small talk is an important activity in most cultures.

Essential Questions

What does it mean to be polite in a Hispanic nation?

How can I communicate and make small talk with speakers of other languages.

New Jersey Student Learning Standards

WL.7.1.NM.B.3	Imitate appropriate gestures and intonation of the target culture(s)/language during greetings, leave - takings, and daily interactions.
WL.7.1.NM.B.1	Use digital tools to exchange basic information at the word and memorized - phrase level related to self and targeted themes.
WL.7.1.NM.A.5	Demonstrate comprehension of brief oral and written messages using age - and level - appropriate, culturally authentic materials on familiar topics.
WL.7.1.NM.A.4	Identify familiar people, places, and objects based on simple oral and/or written descriptions.
WL.7.1.NM.A.2	Demonstrate comprehension of simple, oral and written directions, commands, and requests through appropriate physical response.
WL.7.1.NM.C.3	Copy/write words, phrases, or simple guided texts on familiar topics.
WL.7.1.NM.C.4	Present information from age - and level - appropriate, culturally authentic materials orally or in writing.
WL.7.1.NM.B.4	Ask and respond to simple questions, make requests, and express preferences using memorized words and phrases.
WL.7.1.NM.C.2	Imitate, recite, and/or dramatize simple poetry, rhymes, songs, and skits.

Student Learning Objectives

Students will:

Use appropriate time of day greetings and leave-takings both formally and informally.

Identify and apply appropriate titles for various people.

Identify familiar people as tú or usted.

Ask and answer a variety of conversational questions in both formal and informal contexts.

Memorize and recite songs/chants related to greetings, introductions and farewells, and conversational questions and answers in a variety of cultural contexts.

Read and understand unit vocabulary presented in age appropriate contextualized conversations.

Recognize and apply formal and informal speech in a language other than English.

Practice and perform a basic conversation in small groups.

Instructional Activities

Using a blank Spanish vocabulary list of greetings/ farewells, and simple questions and answers, students can work cooperatively or independently to identify as many as they can within a given time frame.

As a whole class, identify the remaining phrases and questions through TPR, Q/A, ball toss activities, etc.

Students practice asking and answering simple questions through ball toss, circle responses and structured partner Q/A activities, partner sharing activities, etc.

List and identify familiar people in the school/community/world as students respond orally, in writing, or on dry erase boards with the correct formal or informal phrasing of unit conversational questions.

TPR game of Simon Says with unit vocabulary.

Students create and string together statements either orally or in writing to make appropriate greetings for various people in both formal and informal situations and during various times of the day.

Students can pass around a beach ball containing a different conversational question on each color. When each student catches the ball, he/she will ask the question, respond aloud with an appropriate response in Spanish, then pass the ball to another classmate. Play continues until all students have asked/answered a question.

Students will role play an interview situation in partners in which they ask each other and record answers to basic conversation questions.

On a smart board, students will rearrange pieces of a question in the proper grammatical order practicing both formal and informal sentence construction.

Teacher created worksheets to practice formal and informal situations at various times of day.

Students will practice and perform a dialogue in small groups using all unit vocabulary and conversation questions.
